| Berick Center for Student Advising
212-854-6378
(Columbia College and Columbia Engineering students)
| Students can talk to an adviser about any issues or concerns. Advisers are prepared to discuss academics or anything that’s on a student’s mind. They will help students connect to the right resources and can lend a friendly and helpful hand. |
| Residential Life
212-854-3612
(Columbia College and Columbia Engineering students)
| Every residence hall has a full-time professional staff member dedicated to meeting the individual and community needs of students. Someone is on-call and available 24/7 to provide immediate assistance. Students can ask their residence hall’s front desk to connect them to the staff member on-call. |
| Student and Family Support
212-854-2446
(Columbia College and Columbia Engineering students)
| Student and Family Support provides care and guidance to students and families with personal issues, concerns or crises. For compassionate case management services for any issues impacting a student’s life at Columbia, please contact Student and Family Support. |
| Dean of Students Office
212-854-2881
(School of General Studies students)
| In addition to counseling students on core requirements and choosing a major, advisers provide referrals to various support resources within the University for students trying to balance their academic goals with other responsibilities such as family, employment and managing health issues. |
| Counseling and Psychological Services, Columbia Health
212-854-2878
(calls answered 24/7)
(Columbia College, School of General Studies and Columbia Engineering students)
| Counseling and Psychological Services supports the psychological and emotional well-being of the Columbia campus community by providing short-term counseling, consultation and crisis intervention — all of which adhere to strict standards of confidentiality. |
| Public Safety
212-854-5555
(calls answered 24/7)
(Columbia College, School of General Studies, Columbia Engineering and Barnard College students)
| Public Safety is available 24/7 to respond to any safety-related issues on-campus. Save their number in your phone so that it is easily accessible in case of emergency. |
| Nightline Peer Listening
212-854-7777
10:00 p.m.–3:00 a.m.*
(Columbia College, School of General Studies, Columbia Engineering and Barnard College students)
| Nightline Peer Listening is an anonymous peer listening service whose empathetic Columbia/Barnard undergraduate students have completed a training and certification process to work on their phone lines. Students call Nightline for a wide variety of reasons; there is no issue too large or too small. *Nightline operates when fall and spring semester classes are in session. |
| University Chaplain
212-854-1493
(Columbia College, School of General Studies, Columbia Engineering and Barnard College students)
| Many students seek comfort and support in communities of faith. The University Chaplain welcomes everyone — people of all faiths, spiritualities and personal journeys — to its weekly services, programs and community events. |
