Student Resources for the Undergraduate Community at Columbia

|---|---|
| Berick Center for Student Advising 212-854-6378 (Columbia College and Columbia Engineering students) | Students can talk to an adviser about any issues or concerns. Advisers are prepared to discuss academics or anything that's on a student's mind. They will help students connect to the right resources and can lend a friendly and helpful hand. |
| Residential Life 212-854-3612 (Columbia College and Columbia Engineering students) | Every residence hall has a full-time professional staff member dedicated to meeting the individual and community needs of students. Someone is on-call and available 24/7 to provide immediate assistance. Students can ask their residence hall's front desk to connect them to the staff member on-call. |
| Student and Family Support 212-854-2446 (Columbia College and Columbia Engineering students) | Student and Family Support provides care and guidance to students and families with personal issues, concerns or crises. For compassionate case management services for any issues impacting a student's life at Columbia, please contact Student and Family Support. |
| Dean of Students Office 212-854-2881 (School of General Studies students) | In addition to counseling students on core requirements and choosing a major, advisers provide referrals to various support resources within the University for students trying to balance their academic goals with other responsibilities such as family, employment and managing health issues. |
| Counseling and Psychological Services, Columbia Health 212-854-2878 (calls answered 24/7) (Columbia College, School of General Studies and Columbia Engineering students) | Counseling and Psychological Services supports the psychological and emotional well-being of the Columbia campus community by providing short-term counseling, consultation and crisis intervention — all of which adhere to strict standards of confidentiality. |
| Public Safety 212-854-5555 (calls answered 24/7) (Columbia College, School of General Studies, Columbia Engineering and Barnard College students) | Public Safety is available 24/7 to respond to any safety-related issues on-campus. Save their number in your phone so that it is easily accessible in case of emergency. |
| Nightline Peer Listening 212-854-7777 10:00 p.m.–3:00 a.m.* (Columbia College, School of General Studies, Columbia Engineering and Barnard College students) | Nightline Peer Listening is an anonymous peer listening service whose empathetic Columbia/ Barnard undergraduate students have completed a training and certification process to work on their phone lines. Students call Nightline for a wide variety of reasons; there is no issue too large or too small. *Nightline operates when fall and spring semester classes are in session. |
| University Chaplain 212-854-1493 (Columbia College, School of General Studies, Columbia Engineering and Barnard College students) | Many students seek comfort and support in communities of faith. The University Chaplain welcomes everyone — people of all faiths, spiritualities and personal journeys — to its weekly services, programs and community events. |
