

Human Rights | BEYOND COLUMBIA

Studying Human Rights prepares me to . . .

Critically examine issues related to justice and equality through a human rights lens

Engage in debates on key human rights issues, norms, laws, policies, and practices

Enhance written and oral communication, presentation, and argumentation skills

Conduct substantive research, analyze data, and develop specialized knowledge

Assess and respond to emerging technological, sociocultural, economic, and political issues

Act responsibly and using self-reflection when advocating for human rights issues

Have awareness of how human rights issues interlink at the local, national, and global level

Work through the lens of different disciplines

Apply an international perspective to decision-making
